

CAMDEN COUNTY LIBRARY DISTRICT POLICY MANUAL

Section 3. Administration

Subsection 7. Conflict of Interest – Trustees

Conflict of Interest -- Trustees

Trustees must promote a high level of library service while observing ethical standards.

Trustees must avoid situations in which personal interests might be served or financial benefits gained at the expense of library users, colleagues, or the institution.

It is incumbent upon any trustees to disqualify him/her immediately whenever the appearance of a conflict of interest exists.

Once the Board of Trustees approves policy, Trustees must set aside any difference of opinion and support the policy, its implementation, and enforcement.

A trustee must respect the confidential nature of library business while being aware of and in compliance with applicable laws governing freedom of information.

Trustees must be prepared to support to the fullest the efforts of librarians in resisting censorship of library materials by groups or individuals.

Trustees who accept appointment to a library board are expected to perform all of the functions of library trustees.
