I am a CCLD library cardholder.

I am the parent of a minor.

(If objection is to material(s) other than a book, change the wording of the following questions so that they apply).

To what in the book do you object? (Please be specific) I do not object to anything in the book.

What do you feel might be the result of reading this book? Imagination, creativity and acceptance that a child's "job" is to explore who they are and who they might be.

For what age would you recommend this book? ages 4-8

Is there anything good about the book?

It illustrates acceptance of others and shows how bullying can make a child anxious and uneasy about themselves.

Did you read the entire book? Yes: No: If no, what parts?: _____

Are you aware of the judgment of this book by literary critics?

No

What do you believe is the theme of this book?

Children naturally explore who they and others are as they develop. Both boys and girls should be allowed to do so.

What would you like the library to do about this book?

Do not lend it to my child

Withdraw it from all readers as well as my child

Send it back to the staff selection official for re-evaluation

In its place, what book of equal library-quality would you recommend that would convey as valuable a picture and perspective of the subject related?

I am unaware of other books.

Jennifer L. Hawthorne
